Dearest Friends

It has been a long journey from the rented halls of a school in Ridgwood to where we are now. With the Grace of Almighty we are here to stay permanently. God always sends true messengers with the drive ,dedication and 24/7 determination and all the support of the communities near and far to complete his tasks. As we approach the Holy Pran Pratishtha Divas, to invoke the Deities that have graced us with their holy presence from the Holy city of Jaipur, India. We realize that a dream has been made possible. I would like to extend my utmost appreciation to the 150 plus families for their generosity who made it possible to procure and bring these Deities from India.

Now we need clothes to decorate these Deities before invoking the Pran Pratishtha to be held some time in October 2008. There are 20 Deities and the average cost is $ 400 dollars per Moortie with Shinghar. I urge all of you to send donations so we can buy a few sets at one time for use during big Festivals. You can sponsor cloths for any of your favorite God.

This Divine project started many years back, like all projects is one with a financial cost, but one that is truly worth while for generations to come. The legacy of our Hindu culture will certainly live thru the Pillars of this Mandir and legacies formed by our next generations.

We must ensure at all cost not to leave a financial burden to that very generation that we are asking to preserve the Hindu values, culture and Heritage. To this end we urge all of you, your family and friends to contribute a minimum of $ 1008 dollars thru one time donation or 4(four) monthly contributions to very rapidly pay back the outstanding loan of $ 4.6 million dollars, not to mention the fixed monthly operating expenses, and costs for weekly religious, cultural and educational programs. Bergen County of NJ and its close NY and Connecticut counties boasts some of the most affluent Indian population in USA. With over 4000 families, we feel this $ 4.6 M dollars loan can surely be repaid before April 2009. This is a personal challenge from every volunteer, young and old, poor and rich, sick and healthy to all the devotees of our near and extended family of friends.

As you are aware that we celebrated the Sthapna of 18 inches Shri Balaji Maharaj in July 2008 in our existing Mandir. In the upcoming weeks and months we will celebrate the birth of our God Shri Krishan ji (Janam Ashtami on 23rd of August), and in October we will ask Maa Bhagwati's blessings with a Mata ki Chowkey or even a Jaagran if we get the Certificate of Occupancy. We will also celebrate the most auspicious once in a life time "PRAN PRATISHTHA" of all your Marble Deities recently received from the holy city of Jaipur, India. Subsequently with your help and support we will be celebrating all our religious and Cultural events for years to come.

Thank you for your continued support.

Here is my pledge to make Hindu Mandir debt free.
